Call for Application CESUN 2010 – Summer University, Pécs, Hungary 16 – 25 July 2010

The Faculty of Humanities of the University of Pécs, in co-operation with the Society for the Science of History, Pécs, will host the next edition of the Central European Studies Summer University, which will take place in the City of Pécs, European Capital of Culture 2010, between 16 and 25 July 2010. This year the central topic of the summer school is “City-Regions in the Southern Cultural Zone”. More information on the summer school programme can be found at the following website:

www.cesun-pecs.hu

and in the attached brochure.

The event can be attended by anyone interested in the above-mentioned theme, as well as in the history and current transformation processes of the region of Central and Eastern Europe (CEE) and/or in Hungary. If you would like to apply for the CESUN 2010 Summer University, please, send

- a short CV with detailed information on your studies/degrees
- the application form

to the email address cesun@btk.pte.hu.

Deadline for application: 25 June 2010.

Early-bird applicants are encouraged until 1 April 2010!

Registration fee: 80€ (non-refundable)

Tuition fee: 255 €

Early-bird fee: 225€

The tuition fee includes full participation in the lectures and workshops, the field trips and cultural programmes. It also contains accommodation in a dormitory and two hot meals a day (breakfast not included).

The summer school is connected to the 14th International Culture Week in Pécs (ICWiP2010), one of the most known student programmes of the region in the summer. Students can combine their participation in the two events. If you want to spend an unforgettable 2 weeks in one of the European Capitals of Culture 2010, we encourage you to apply for both events! You can get a discount at ICWiP2010 if you come as a “CESUN student”. Visit www.icwip.hu

We hope to see you this summer in Pécs!

Kind regards,
University of Pécs, Faculty of Humanities and
